General

- TMA supported by government and military competent organizations, has produced this new circular to Enhance Maritime Security for Vessels & Mariners Operating Off the Coast of West Africa including the Gulf of Guinea for specific threats in this region.
- The Code of Conduct concerning the repression of piracy, armed robbery against ships, and illicit maritime activity in west and central Africa was formally adopted by a Heads of State meeting in Cameroon's capital Yaoundé, on 25 June 2013, and was signed by ministerial level representatives of 22 States immediately afterwards. The Code builds on the existing Memorandum of Understanding on the integrated coastguard function network in west and central Africa and incorporates a number of elements of the Djibouti Code of Conduct, the regional counter-piracy agreement for East African States, but is much wider in scope as it addresses a range of illicit activities at sea including illegal fishing, drug smuggling and piracy.
- This circular contains useful contact details and information sharing in West and Central Africa for ships on threat, risk, under attack, search and rescue purposes.
- Considering that attacks in the Gulf of Guinea continue to threaten the lives of seafarers, especially at a time when the global shipping community has also to fend off the threat from COVID-19, this circular contributes to Togo's firm commitment to the safety and welfare of the men and women on board vessels.
- The International Ships Registry of TOGO strongly urges all interested parties to apply to the extent possible the recommended action while sailing in the defined High-Risk Area. All parties associated with the International Ships Register of TOGO and in particular owners, operators and managers of ships entitled to fly the TOGO flag, as well as the shipboard personnel employed or engaged on such ships, are invited to act accordingly. At

Definitions

Hijack: Unauthorized persons have illegally boarded the ship and taken control of the vessel against the will of the Master and crew. Illegal Boarding: An illegal boarding is where the attackers have boarded the ship but have not taken control of the vessel. Attempted Boarding: Close approach or hull-to-hull contact with report that boarding paraphernalia were employed or visible in the approaching boat, but are thwarted by BMP measures, PAST, weather conditions, lack of appropriate equipment, etc. Attack: The ship has been subjected to an aggressive approach by unidentified craft and weapons have been discharged. Suspicious approach: Definite alteration towards the ship, rapid increase in speed which cannot be accounted for in the prevailing conditions. Sudden changes in course towards ship and aggressive behavior. Robbery: Theft realized in territorial waters with threat/violence to crew. Theft: Theft realized in territorial waters with no violence. Sightings and Irregular Activity: Suspicious activity not associated with the locality or prevailing conditions. Piracy: Article 101 of the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) determines that Piracy consists of any of the following acts: (a) any illegal acts of violence or detention, or any act of depredation, committed for private ends by the crew or the passengers of a private ship or a private aircraft, and directed: (i) on the high seas, against another ship or aircraft, or against persons or property on board such ship or aircraft; (ii) against a ship, aircraft, persons or property in a place outside the jurisdiction of any State; (b) any act of voluntary participation in the operation of a ship or of an aircraft with knowledge of facts making it a pirate ship or aircraft; (c) any act of inciting or of intentionally facilitating an act described in subparagraph (a) or (b). Armed Robbery against ships: Resolution A.1025(26) (Annex, paragraph 2.2) on IMO's Code of Practice for the Investigation of the Crimes of Piracy and Armed Robbery Against Ships, determines that armed robbery against ships consists of any of the following acts: (a) any illegal act of violence or detention or any act of depredation, or threat thereof, other than an act of piracy, committed for private ends and directed against a ship or against persons or property on board such a ship, within a State's internal waters, archipelagic waters and territorial sea; (b) any act of inciting or of intentionally facilitating an act described above."

Information

- Masters and CSOs are encouraged to report as early as possible, events or sightings with as much detail as possible to below local and regional centers and Authorities to give them time to initiate the appropriate response.
- Masters are encouraged to apply Best Management Practices to Enhance Maritime Security for Vessels & Mariners Operating Off the Coast of West Africa including the Gulf of Guinea (BMP WA) during their presence in the above Area.
- Shipowners and ship operators, shipmasters and crews are encouraged to take also into account the guidance provided in respective IMO resolutions on preventing and suppressing acts of piracy and armed robbery against ships. 41
